OUR STORY

Evolv started in the L.A. area of Southern California, USA, with a vision of making the best climbing shoes on the planet. In the years since that vision, Evolv, with the input of an incredibly diverse team of the best athletes from around the world, including part owner Chris Sharma, has continued to push the limits of technical performance footwear. Constantly striving to work with the best and be the best, Evolv is an industry leader and truly at the forefront of the Climbing Revolution.

YOSEMITE BUM

Evolv's roots go back to Yosemite Bum resoling. Now we are the only climbing shoe company that also does resoles. Guaranteeing that your shoes are resoled properly by the people who make shoes. Yosemite Bum has the highest quality and fastest turnaround of any resole company in the U.S.
